

Come celebrate
HTCC's 10th Anniversary

6:00 pm, Friday, March 11, Peachtree Banquet Center

Banquet Entertainment

The Fab 5

A musical extravaganza of songs from popular Hindi, Tamil, and Telugu movies! The Fab 5 includes four talented singers from St. Louis and one of Columbia's own.

Supriya Balaji is pursuing a PhD in Bio-engineering at Mizzou
Ramesh Cherupalla a software engineer, is married with three children, he lives in St. Louis.
Mani NBS is a radiologist by profession and trained as a classical singer.
Sakthivel Jegadeesan lives in the St. Louis area and works in the IT industry.
Sudhir Padmanbhan, Senior Manager at Citigroup, is married with two boys and settled in St Louis.

Catered Banquet Spread

A delicious Indian vegetarian meal will be catered by India Palace, St. Louis. Come join us for the whole nine yards—samosa to rasmalai and other palate-teasers along the way.

Youth Room

Stephanie Ross Mario Manzini

For the 10th year in a row, their favorite, Stephanie Ross, will engage the youth with arts and crafts.
Magician and Illusionist, Mario Manzini, joins the crew for a special treat.

Fun and Games

We'll have a few rounds of Bingo after dinner—bring your sharp memories with you.

Masala Magic – Second Printing

Have you given away all your copies of Masala Magic, HTCC's popular cookbook? Or did you NEVER get one because HTCC ran out of copies? Here's your chance to purchase Masala Magic again - and at $13 if purchased at the banquet (instead of the $15 regular price).

Silent Auction

This year we bring back our ever-popular silent auction. Lots of interesting Indian stuff to browse through, including copies of old movies.

Samarpanam Release

The 10th Anniversary Special issue of Samarpanam will be released at the banquet. This commemorative issue is a keepsake memento with hundred plus photos of HTCC events as well of friends and family, including many former Columbia families and other Mandir well-wishers.
